

Pro Se Assistance Project

Overview

The Pro Se Assistance Project (PAP) offers a Pro Se Assistance Center, staffed by volunteer bankruptcy attorneys and law students. The PAP offers free legal guidance through 20-minute consultations to individuals who are representing themselves in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. Volunteers can provide information about the bankruptcy process and provide limited case-specific advice, but they cannot represent parties in court or file pleadings. The project is the result of a collaboration among the Bankruptcy Assistance & Practice Program of Georgia State University College of Law, the Bankruptcy Section of the Atlanta Bar Association and The W. Homer Drake Jr. Georgia Bankruptcy American Inn of Court.

Pro Se Assistance Project

What We Do

- We provide limited legal advice and information on bankruptcy related issues and questions in the Northern District of Georgia.
- We answer questions about completing forms and preparing and filing court documents.
- We provide referrals and other resource information.

What We Do Not Do

- We do not give advice on any non-bankruptcy related legal issues or cases.
- We do not complete forms on behalf of any debtor or creditor.
- We do not provide representation in court.
- We do not file pleadings on behalf of any party.
- We do not commit to an attorney-client relationship beyond the limited relationship that exists during the in-person consultation.
